Romain Pilon Gitarren-Workshop 17.02. / 18.02.2018

Thema: Improvisation

"The Romain Pilon workshop will focus on jazz improvisation and most specifically how to express oneself through this art form. Studying the history of this music, from its roots to its most contemporary forms, we will learn how to develop a personal approach and most specifically focus on the concept of tension/resolution"

Topics covered will be, among others

- intervallic improvisation - linear approach to the guitar
- bebop vocabulary,
- triads / arpeggios / chromatic approaches
- time feel / developing the inner pulse,
- common and less common reharmonizations
- comping (chord vocabulary)
- motivic development...
